The aims of this file are:

- to hold essential information in one convenient place.
- to keep everyone in touch with what everyone else is doing.
- to give the file's owner some control over the support he or she receives and how it is recorded.
- to cut down the unnecessary repeating of questions and answers.

Nothing should go down in this file which the owner disagrees with or would wish to keep private.

However, friends, family and supporting professionals can all contribute to its use, so that everyone is working in accord with one another and is kept up to date.
